Lots of Action, Thrills Call Fans to Sun's Basketball Night

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! One and all to the Second Annual Father and Children's Night Basketball Game sponsored by The Sun in cooperation with St. Mary's College.

There'll be plenty of thrills and action when the Galloping Gaels of St. Mary's take to the hardwoods against Fresno State College tomorrow night at 8.

Approximately 500 seats will be offered on a first come - first served basis at St. Mary's College tomorrow night for The Sun' Second Annual Father and Children's Basketball Game.

The Sun has taken reservations for a two-week period, and now the remaining seats will be given to the first 500 persons who arrive at the Moraga Campus Gym for the St. Mary's Fresno State clash on the hardwoods before game time at 8 p.m.

Anyone who has already received his or her reservation blank need not worry, a seat has been reserved by St. Mary's for that parent and his "guests" if they are seated by 8 p.m.

Clip the coupon in this week's Lafayette Sun, Orinda Sun, Pleasant Hill Sun or Walnut Creek Sun and present it at the box office at St. Mary's with $1.25 for each adult and all the children will be admitted free of charge.

No more resevations for the game will be taken at any of The Sun offices.

It will be a good idea to get to St. Mary's early tomorrow night, since the top flight collegiate basketball to be offered by the St. Mary's and Fresno State athletics is almost certain to attract a large audience and the first 500 to arrive at the campus will be sure of getting seats.

A special halftime program will be presented with teams from Pleasant Hill and Lafayette competing in a basketball game.

Last year teams from Walnut Creek and Orinda played during the halftime of the First Annual Sun's Father and Children's Basketball night.

The program has been arranged in cooperation with St Mary's College and the reservation holders have been saved "the best seats in the house" by Walt DeFaria, public relations director at the college.

Feathers Fly Furiously In Rail Removal Rhubarb

An allout battle with no holds barred has broken out between the Key System; Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District and the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission in the already highly emotional conflict over rails on the Bay Bridge.

Statements and counter statements, denials and allegations were hurled between the governmental bodies, cities, improvement associations as well as chambers of commerce.

KEY SMASHED out at what it called six discrepancies in the engineering studies of the "two county" transit district, one of which allegedly amounts to $200,000.

In turn, Key lost its plea to block reopening of eharings on whether Key may or may not continue train operations on the bridge in favor of buses transport.

In an expected move, the two county district called for an election, for which date will be set later, for purchase of Key and resolved to ask the Public Utilities Commission to set a "just and fair" price on all of Key's holdings.

THE TOLL BRIDGE Authority was dragged into the controversy to clarify its plans to increase the vehicular capacity of the bridge by 35 percent by ripping out the train tracks.

The Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission took the stand that the Toll Bridge Authority should reserve space on the bridge to allow for rapid transit facilities.

The Alameda - Contra Costa District, drafted a three-point program to support its demand for reconsideration.

1—The board will present a transit plan, and ask voters of the two counties to adopt a bond issue, no later than November 1. Board President Robert K. Barber promised that the plan will be ready in two months.

2—Train tracks on the Bay Bridge will be "an integral part" of whatever plan is formed, and the district will attempt "by negotiation, legal action, legislation, and any other legitimate means to preserve the rail facilities now existing on said bridge."

3—In the near future, the board will file a formal petition asking the PUC to determine what it should pay for properties owned by Key System which it plans to acquire.

In each case there were deviations from established policies.

MEANWHILE the Contra Costa Transit Council continued its fight against the two county transit district and awaits to go to court and get the unincorporated areas of Contra Costa and portions of Richmond and San Pablo out of the district.

Litigation against the Alameda Contra Costa Transit District has been under way since the district was formed in the general elections of 1956.

A representative of the Alameda Contra Costa Transit District will speak at the Monday night meeting of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council at Fair Oaks School to explain the intentions of the two county body and its future plans which will be of benefit to Contra Costa County.

The meeting is set for 8 p.m.

Two Meetings Next Week Will Discuss Problem

Faced with possibility that 80 families in the area may be without television reception in a few weeks, residents of the El Toyonal section will meet next week to discuss methods of grappling with the problem.

Impetus to this activity was a letter to each of the 80 subscribers by William A. Gentry of Television Transmission, Inc., of Martinez, stating that the present coaxial cable service which provides TV service to the homes will be shut down as of February 10 unless the residents of the area take steps to prevent this.

To discuss what steps, if any, to take, two meetings have been called for next week, both on the initiative of subscribers who were not acting in any official or organizational capacity.

GENTRY CLAIMS that the cable system, which was installed five years ago at a cost of nearly $90,000, "has been an economic failure and has remained dormant with its 80 subscribers for over four years."

Next week's discussion meetings are scheduled for 7 p.m. Sunday at the main Orinda fire station on Avenida De Orinda in Orinda Village and for 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Orinda School auditorium.

The Sunday evening gathering has been called by Phil Champion and Frank Lusher, who sent postcards to other subscribers announcing the gathering "to discuss future of antenna system."

Next Wednesday night's meeting has been arranged by W. F. Williams of 9 El Toyonal, who, in a letter to all other subscribers, reported that Gentry has agreed to attend this meeting.

"HE WAS QUITE frank in discussing the entire matter with me," Williams stated regarding Gentry, in his letter, "and I believe will be willing to answer all necessary questions in order that we may have a complete picture of the situation."

Williams added that Gentry would "extend the February deadline for some reasonable period if this becomes necessary."

The following alternatives are specified by Gentry:

"First:

"THE SYSTEM could be owned by a non-profit organization capable of producing the necessary liability bonds to the telephone company for the privilege of retaining the coaxial cables on the poles which bring your signals from the top of El Toyonal to your home.

"The ownership of this cable can be realized by each of the 80 subscribers contributing $50 toward the purchase of the system assets. This system will be turned over to a reliable group without any liabilities upon the receipt of $4000, which will be the full purchase price. The system could continue to be serviced by RCA on an annual service contract which would be paid for by continuing the present $4 monthly service charge. Such a system can operate on a 'break even' basis with 80 subscribers, providing all of the members pay their dues, which has not been evident in the past.

"Second:

"WE WILL CONTINUE to operate the system upon certain conditions. We will make minor improvements, reducing most of the radiation, and possibly adding a fourth channel. This channel would be selected by popular vote of the subscribers. These improvements will be made only after all of the present subscribers pay their delinquent bills for service.

"The present amount of subscribers must double. It is believed that each of the present subscribers could produce one additional subscriber which would accomplish this task. These subscribers will be connected to the present system for a new connection charge of $25 and will pay a service charge of $4.08 per month. These subscribers must be located along the present cable system. There are 480 homes located along the present cable system which could be connected for service.

"Third:

"WE WILL DISCONTINUE the cable service to all of the Orinda area on February 10, 1958. On March 10, 1958, we will commence removing the system equipment for salvage.

"It seems a shame to remove 10 miles of cable after $90,000 has been spent and over five years of effort has been put into attempting to operate a profitable venture."

He stated that there are 80 or more families which are not members, "who are receiving their signals on antennas which are picking up 'radiation' from the cable system."

Writ Issued Against Plumbers In Housing Authority Strike

The Contra Costa Housing Authority got its first break in many months when Judge Norman A. Gregg issued a writ against the plumbers union to end its strike.

The conflict between the union and the authority began last spring when the authority fired a plumer shop steward.

JUDGE GREGG set Monday for hearing of arguments on why the courts should not permanently enjoin the plumbers union from refusing to supply labor for the county's housing projects.

A. F. Bray Jr., attorney for the housing agency, petitioned for the injunction against Local 159 of the plumbers union, its business agent, William H. Dimler, and the Contra Costa County Building and Construction Trades Council. The petition also asks $10,000 damages.

The suit cites an October 3, 1957 agreement between the housing agency and labor organizations in which it was stipulated that wages and hours were subject to approval of the federal Public Housing Administration and allied offices.

THE UNION had demanded that plumbers receive travel pay for work more than 15 miles from the county housing agency's Pittsburg shops.

The county agency had argued that it has another shop in Rodeo, which the union has refused to recognize. The PHA refused to approve the mileage claim.

However, in mid-December, the local obtained strike approval, and went out on December 26, according to the complaint. Health problems have arisen, Bray argued.

Last July 19, Gregg issued an injuction against the union's striking over the firing of a Pittsburg shop steward who had drawn a $150 fine in a civil suit in which it was alleged that he had made improper advances to a woman tenant of the El Pueblo housing project.

Braumoeller Quizzed After Switch to Plea of Guilty

Former State Narcotics Agent Ludwig (Fred) Braumoeller was being questioned at length this week by Federal Probation Officer William P. Adams. The questioning took place at Braumoeller's home at 56 Claremont Drive, Orinda, where the former narcotics agent was bedridden with a sprained back which he sustained while bowling with a friend last weekend.

Although the details of Braumoeller's disclosures to the probation officer were not revealed, the dismissed agent had stated, prior to Adams' arrival at his home, that he would "unload" everything he knew about the State Narcotics Bureau.

The questioning of Braumoeller followed his surprise appearance in the Federal District Court of Judge O. D. Hamlin Jr. in San Francisco last Friday, when he switched his plea from innocent to guilty of distributing and dispensing heroin to an Oakland addict.

LONG CONSIDERED an ace agent of the State Narcotics Bureau, the 38-year-old- Braumoeller was arrested at his home October 23 by federal and state agents on a federal warrant charging him with selling narcotics.

Less than a week later a federal grand jury in San Francisco indicted him on four counts of supplying heroin to an addict, Leroy (Blood) Adams. Two of the counts charged sales of heroin, counts charged sales of heroin, charged distribution of heroin, without specifically accusing Braumoeller with receiving anything of value in return.

Braumoeller then charged he was "framed" by Federal Narcotics Chief George White, in reprisal for a past feud.

UNTIL HIS SURPRISE appearance in Judge Hamlin's court last Friday, Braumoeller had been scheduled to go on trial last Monday.

His switch to a guilty plea was on one count of distributing and dispensing heroin. A defense motion for dismissal of the three other counts was taken under submission by Judge Hamlin, who set January 31 for probation report and sentence.

Braumoeller appeared in court last Friday with his attorney, Rupert Crittenden, who informed the judge that his client desired to change his plea on one of the counts.

"ARE YOU familiar with this charge?" Judge Hamlin asked Braumoeller.

"I am, your honor," Braumoeller replied.

"Are you familiar with the penalty that can be imposed?" the judge asked.

"I am," your honor," Braumoeller answered.

"Has your attorney advised you that you can receive not less than two years and not more than 10 years on this charge?"

"He has, your honor."

Assistant U.S. Attorney Robert Schnacke said that the government had no objectioin to dismissal of the three remaining counts.

HOWEVER, U. S. Attorney Lloyd Burke denied that any "deal" had been made.

"The non-opposition to the dismissal is strictly routine procedure and is not tied in any way with the state attorney general's office," Burke said.

"The only concession," Burke continued, "was our statement it would be more convenient and advantageous in connection with the inquiry to have Braumoeller free on bail. It has nothing to do with his plea of guilty."

BRAUMOELLER is at liberty on $10,000 bail, as he was before he switched his plea.

Request that the $10,000 bail be continued and that the matter be referred to the federal probation deparment for a pre-sentence investigation was made by Crittenden, and the judge agreed to the request.

While the questioning of Braumoeller progressed this week, demands were made by two state legislators that there be no censorship of Braumoeller's disclosures to the probation officer.

THESE DEMANDS were voiced by Assemblyman Caspar Weinberger of San Francisco, head of the Joint Audit Committee of the Legislature, and State Senator Donald A. Grunsky of Watsonville, chairman of the Interim Judiciary Committee.

"The public has a right to know what's going on," Weinberger declared. He added that his Joint Audit Committee may call Braumoeller as an expert witness.

Grunsky said, "If any attempt is made to keep secret any statements of Braumoeller . . . except for such limited time as is necessary to bring prosecution, then I would consider it the duty of the Legislature to consider the matter."

Crime Wave Scare Uncalled for, Says CC Sheriff Brown

Sheriff Harry A. Brown discounted reports of a "major crime wave" in Central Contra Costa in an interview with The Sun.

Brown referred to the remarks made by Supervisor Mel Nielsen of the Second Supervisorial District, that he was swamped by calls informing him of major crimes being perpetrated in the central county area.

"I DON'T KNOW where the supervisor got his information of 22 major incidents in a 24-hour period, but at least I got the additional men that I have been trying to get for so long," said Brown.

"There has never been what you call a major crime wave since I've been in office," the sheriff continued.

"Naturally when you have one patrol car in an area with some 70,000 residents there's bound to be trouble.

Now that the supervisors have realized what I have been talking about all these months, the taxpayers will get even better protection with the additional patrol cars on duty.

DEPUTIES NOTED to The Sun that the amount of prowler reports and "wild goose chases" had taken a terrif ic jump and a good many central county residents are "half scared to death" over this "tremendous exaggeration of the true facts in the matter."

The Sun has received many calls from residents asking what to do should they detect a prowler.

Detective Louis Skuce of the central county substation informed The Sun that the following procedure should be used in case a prowler is detected.

1. If you are in bed, don't turn on any lights or cause any commotion.

2. Pick up the telephone, dial the operator, give her your name, address and telephone number and tell her it is an emergency and to contact the Contra Costa Sheriff's Office.

"With the additional cars on duty an officer can be at the location within two or three minutes," explained Skuce.

3. Should the person be in the process of actually breaking into your home, turn on light, yell, do anything in your power to frighten the prowler away and call the sheriff's office, using the same procedure as above.

"If the person is outside your home don't try to shoot him. Don't try to be a hero. There are law enforcement officers that are readily available to protect you," Skuce stated.

"This crime scare was uncalled for and I hope that the residents are brougth to realize there is no a major crime wave as has been erroneously reported," Brown concluded.

Carroll, Bunce, Acton, Madison Named in Suit

John H. Bunce, convicted stock swindler of Orinda, was sued by three of Walnut Creek residents Monday in Martinez.

A superior Court complaint was filed by attorneys for Mrs. Eleanore Haller, widow of Paul Haller, who committed suicide as an aftermath of the swindle; A. J. Johnson, realtor and Edward A. Moore, Walnut Creek dentist.

NAMED DEFENDANTS, in addition to Bunce, were Thomas F. J. Carrol, president of the now defunct Pacific States Securities Corporation, and William B. Acton, secretary of the corporation and J. Allen Madioson of 75 Alberta Terrace, Walnut Creek.

Acton has resigned as the chief of the fraud Department of the San Francisco District Attorney's Office and Madison is allegedly the person who solicited sales for Bunce.

Johnson asks damages of his $23,300 in claimed losses; Moore seeks $11,600 and Mrs. Haller seeks $21,500. The trio ask jointly for $25,000 in exemplary damages.

Suit Filed by Lavagetto for Son, Ernest

A $50,000 auto-pedestrian suit has been filed by Harry A. "Cookie" Lavagetto of Orinda, on behalf of his son, Ernest, 9, struck by a car on December 3.

Named defendants are William H. Foster of 1 West Way, Orinda, and the Stokely-Van Camp Company for which he is division sales manager.

Foster was driving a company car at the time of the accident, which occured when the boy tried to cross the Orinda Highway at Santa Maria Road.

The complain states that Ernest suffered a broken right leg, right pelvis and other injuries. The Lavagetto family lives at 46 Tara Road, Orinda.

C of C Members Will Vote On Names of Area Roads

Discussion at a special meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce board last Tuesday noon at Casa Orinda resulted in decision to poll the directors by mailed ballot on their preferences regarding certain road-names.

Secretary Clarence Betz reported later that he was sending the ballot to the directors, and that the directors' preferences will be placed before the membership next Tuesday noon, so that the general memebrship can vote on the matter.

Next Tuesday's meeting, a luncheon gathering, will also be at Casa Orinda.

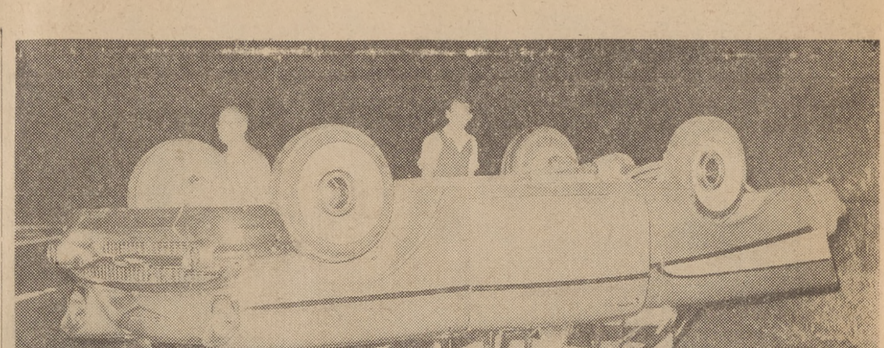
BETZ EXPLAINED that the ballot being sent to the directors had two alternate propositions on them, regarding the chamber's attitude on county action regarding road-names: These proposals he said, were in effect:

1. To favor giving the name of Camino Pablo to the county road all the way from Highway 40 to Moraga, except that the present Orinda Highway be called Orinda Way, and that the section from the Standard Oil station to Bryant Way be called Moraga Way.

ALL THE REST—including the present San Pablo Dam Road, the Orinda Village bypass and the present Moraga Highway—would be Camino Pablo.

2. To favor having the name Camino Pablo apply only to the section from Highway 40 to the Standard Oil station near Orinda Willows (with the present Orinda Highway being changed to Orinda Way), and with the present Moraga Highway from Bryant Way to Moraga to be called Moraga Way.

The eventual recommendation of the chamber will be passed along to the County Board of Supervisors, which has scheduled a hearing on the matter for February 11.



COMPLETE FLIP-FLOP was done by this car early Sunday morning when, driven by Donald Preston Forster, 22, of 1048-A Aileen Street, Lafayette. It veered to the side of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and rolled over onto its top, about 150 feet east of Charles Hill Road, according to the California Highway Patrol. Forster had been driving west. The patrol reported that he was cited for excessive speeding. The accident occurred about 1 a.m., along the north side of Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Orinda Association Elects Arthur M. Flint President

Arthur M. Flint was elected president of the Orinda Association Monday night.

Other new officers, also elected at the first meeting of the new board in the Orinda School auditorium, are Dr. Ralph C. Hall, vice-president; Heber Smith, secretary, and Harry C. Booth, treasurer.

Together with Arthur A. Pedersen, Donald Anderson, William Thornton White Jr., Fred Twining and Norman Cunningham, they constitute the 1958 board. Also on this year's board is Gene Estes as a director-at-large, since he is immediate past president.

Flint, Twining and Cunningham are holdover directors, whose terms run another year. All the others except Dr. Hall have been elected for two-year terms. Dr. Hall will serve on the board for one year, to fill the nexpired portion of the term of Dorothy Adie, who has moved to the Midwest.

THE NEW PRESIDENT is 48 and lives at 14 Scenic Court, Orinda, with his wife, Katherine, and two daughters, Susan, 17, and Patsy, 15.

He is vice-president of the Glorietta Improvement Association and a past director of the Martinez Chamber of Commerce.

He is manager of the personnel and industrial relations department of Shell Oil Company att he firm's Martinez refinery.

OUTGOING President Estes thanked the 1957 board for its cooperation and advised the 1958 board to concentrate on problems of community planning and the building of associatiion membership.

Twining and Booth were named by Flint as co-chairmen of a budget committee. The president asked them to have a tentative budget report ready at the January 27 board meeting.

This action by Flint followed board approval of a suggestion by Pedersen that the association books be audited.

THE DIRECTORS approved a plan of Robert L. Klemmedson fora medical building on Orinda Highway between the Christian Science Church and Santa Maria Way.

Douglas Manuel discussed his plans for the erection of apartment buildings at the Pine Grove, for approximately 150 families. The matter was referred to the association's planning committee.

Outgoing directors, in addition to Estes, were Claire Ward, Robert Wallace, Marvin Baker and Holland DuBois.

Mrs. Ward—explaining that the suggestion had come from Marie Monahan — proposed revival of "Aburdia in Suburbia" by the association, on a simple scale, to raise money for the organization. Until a few years ago such a production was an annual event of the Orinda Mothers Club for several years.

Further consideration of this idea was put over until the next meeting.

Letters to The Editor

MISCONCEPTION

Dear Editor:

A misconception was suggested a few weeks ago in referring to the nullification of the election on incorporation.

The suggestion was made that the nullification group was only another expression from a group of fellow property owners.

The nullification proceedings did not appear to be other than a shewdly conceived, professionally administered move to keep the population of Orinda from an opportunity to express itself in a democratic vote.

The five biggest protestors (from the valuation standpoint), as pointed out by Mr. Spiegl and Mr. Bartle in the Orinda Sun, were the Pacific Reliance Company of Palo Alto, Orinda Country Club, Donald Rheem, Altarinda Estates, and the Utah Construction Company.

This group's interest was in the advantages to be derived from the development of unimproved land.

It is to the interest of the people of Orinda to be aware of the forces which guide the destiny of their community. Active participation in the affairs of your Orinda Association will insure a greater voice in the future of our area.

Conversely, inactivity or passive acceptance, of the administration of the only organization which represents the people of Orinda, will be an invitation to those who seek to change the residential nature of our locality.

Magazine Lauds Miramonte H.S. Design, Economy

Miramonte High School has been highlighted in the December issue of Architectural Forum, national builders' magazine, for its efficient design and economic construction.

The article commends the construction savings achieved at Miramonte through standardization as "much more thoroughgoing than most prefabricated school construction schemes."

The three-page commentary and photo layout applauds the "simplicity" of the Miramonte facilities and "the inherent space economy of classroom layout."

Contracts are now in process for the completion of the Miramonte High School plant to allow it to serve a "comprehensive four-year program." According to district trustees, the Orinda plant has been built on a "build as you grow" policy, with construction being completed just ahead of enrollment demands.

Miramonte now has a three-year freshman through junior curriculum program. A fourth—senior—year will be added next September.

In reporting the story on Miramonte, Architectural Forum also notes that Acalanes High School in Lafayette, the district's first secondary plant opened in 1941, was a "famous" pioneer in economical and functional school design.

A third district high school, Las Lomas High in Walnut Creek was built on the same general theme as the other district schools. Trustees are currently completing plans for a fourth district school to be located in Tice Valley.

Judge Sets Oak Springs Hearing

Superior Judge Hugh H. Donovan has set next Monday, 10 a.m. for hearing on mandamus proceedings brought to lift a ban on sale of some 158 lots in Orinda.

The State Real Estate Commission had blocked the sale and Orinda Attorney Nathan Gray, in behalf of himself, the F. F. Porter Company, and four associates, is seeking to force the state board to retract its order.

The land involved was mapped for subdivision in 1924 and 1928.

Stoffel Notes Anniversary

John L. Stoffel, who was manager of American Trust Company's Orinda office from 1947 to 1953, observed his 35th anniversary with the bank last week.

He holds the post of assistant vice president in the real estate loan department at the San Francisco head office.

The Stoffels reside at 27 Romona Drive, Orinda.

Girl, 8, Gets Santa Claus Hut For Birthday

Shirley DenDulk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. DenDulk of 133 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda, was 8 years old Monday, and as a super-special birthday present she's getting the Santa Claus House which was Saint Nick's headquarters during the recent Lafayette Christmas Pageant.

Mrs. DenDulk bought the Santa Claus from Dick Pape of 1122 Orchard Road, Lafayette, 19-year-old junior at the University of California who had won the hut as the result of having the number 2 ticket stub. (The holder of the number 1 ticket stub hadn't made any claim.)

The Lafayette Christmas Pageant was sponsored by the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce.

At midweek the Santa Claus House was still at Lafayette Plaza, and Mrs. DenDulk was making arrangement to have it moved to the DenDulk yard.

"It'll make a lovely playhouse for Shirley," Mrs. DenDulk said. Shirley agreed.

To fry bacon, eggs, hamburgers and other foods while camping, all that's necessary is to lay a double sheet of foil over the grid. This provides a "hot plate" to cook on, and affords any desired degree of heat, if the fire has been built right.

Orinda Dads Will March On Polio as Drive Climax

Orinda fathers under the leadership of Stan Hunn will again march on polio January 31.

The march this year will be to raise funds for those for whom Salk vaccine shot came too late.

In Contra Costa County alone there are 500 polio cases still being cared for at the cost of $11,000 a month. So Hunn says, "Please turn on your porch lights, and light the way for our marching fathers."

Mrs. Dan Lucas of Orinda is again serving the month-long March of Dimes campaign, this time as head coordinator of the Orinda, Moraga, Canyon and Lafayette area.

"This area has always done so well in helping to conquer polio, let's continue and not forget those for whom the vaccine came too late," she states.

Among the fathers who have already volunteered are Bud Felker, Del Thompson, Andy Knudsen, Barton Van Sickle, Bill Jones, Charles Langridge, Jim Jackson, Mel Arighi, Clark Joiner, Bill Lasater and Leland Atkins.

Miramonte Mirror

By VICKY ADAMS

The big question mark for the junior class is who will be the first A.F.S. exchange student this summer.

About 20 juniors handed in their first application on January 6. The next step for elimination students will be Sunday, when all the applicants will attend a tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buehler.

The junior class is also busy raising money for its first prom on May 16.

Some ideas brought up were showing a movie at noon, Slave Weekend and a Cake Week during which cakes will be sold at the Crossroads on a Saturday, and the following week at Miramonte.

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club began the year with their first ski trip to Kaleva Lodge last Saturday morning.

From the lodge, they went to Echo Summit on Saturday and Edelweiss on Sunday.

The speaker will be Edwin M. Wetmore, who is associated with the Oakland School System. His topic will be "Automotive Driving Safety" and will cover aspects which will be presented in an entirely different manner. Some of these are: the existing traffic problems in California, driving habits of today, and highways.

"We are privileged indeed to have Mr. Wetmore, as he is a requested speaker by industry in the bay area and is sought after by service clubs and has spoken before many of them," said Mrs. Minor.

"Circle the date on your calendar—Monday, January 13, 8 p.m. in the Miramonte High School Cafeteria. You won't want to miss this meeting."

Don Doyle Will not Seek Reelection to Assembly

Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle (R), Lafayette, today announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the State Assembly from the 10th District, Contra Costa County as first predicted in The Sun several months ago.

In making his announcement Assemblyman Doyle said:

"IT IS WITH considerable regret that I have made the decision not to run again for the Assembly. However, after serving three terms, I have decided that I must devote more time to my growing family and to my insurance business.

"I have always had the support in my activities of my wife and children, as well as my business partner, but I feel after six years that I would be unfair to those I hold dearest if I continued as an Assemblyman.

"During these six years in the State Assembly I have watched with pride the accomplishments which have been made in Contra Costa County, through not only my efforts but by the cooperation of my fellow legislators.

"SINCE 1952 over $72,000,000 have been spent on the freeways of our county. With the plans now underway we will have some of the finest highways in the state.

"As chairman of the Assembly's committee on education I can report the progress in the schools of not only our state, but here in Contra Costa County.

"Some $52,600,000 have been spent in new school construction in the county, which provided nearly 1600 new classrooms to house over 50,000 additional children.

"These accomplishments in the field of education for our children have given me the greatest satisfaction as a member of the legislature.

"SINCE 1952 we have seen the great Richmond - San Rafael bridge constructed and now the start of the additional span of the Carquinez bridge.

"In the field of flood control nearly a half a million dollars have been spent in our county and the projects now being formulated will alleviate the serious flood problems that now face us.

"On a state-wide basis the Short-Doyle Act providing for community mental health clinics, should go a long way in remedying the serious problem of mental illness in California.

"As vice-chairman of the California State Republican Central Committee, I hope to continue my interest in the political life of California. My interest in the Republican Party and the ideals for which it stands will remain uppermost in my mind. I hope, too, that I may continue my activities here in Contra Costa so that those things I have learned as an Assemblyman may benefit the people of my county.

"AT THE PRESENT time I have no further interest in elective public office, but I will always be anxious to serve the people of my community and the State of California.

"To the many people who have urged that I run for re-election to the Assembly, my heartfelt thanks for the confidence they have placed in me. I urge them to carefully select a candidate who will represent this district in the Assembly.

"I pledge that I will work with our next Assemblyman and help him in any way I can."

Doyle was elected to the Assembly in 1952, and re-elected in 1954 and 1956. He was the first Republican elected from the 10th District since 1934. He has served as chairman of the Assembly committee on education, as well as being a member of the finance and insurance, public utilities and corporations, conservation, planning and public works committees, vice-chairman of the joint school visitations committee, and a member of the State Allocations Board.

PTA Will Show 3 Special Films

Three films on family life education are being offered in a program for parents sponsored by Lafayette School PTA January 29, 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., in the Lafayette School auditorium.

Dr. Clifford Feiler, M.D., will discuss the value of the films, which are "Human Beginnings," "Human Growth," and "Story of Menstruation," produced by Walt Disney.

Also planned for the program is a previlew on slides of some new materials and books being purchased for family life education. These will be available to parents and teachers in the school library.

The Lafayette School Board appeared as a panel at the January 9 meeting of the PTA in order to discuss how the curriculum for Lafayette schools is set up, what qualifications a teacher must meet and other informative subjects.

Carl Merner, president of the school board, presided, and other panelists were Chris Adams, Helen Brattain, Beardman Moore and Jack Jaques.

The appointment of three new chairmen to the Lafayette PTA board was announced by President Austin Whittaker. The new members are Mrs. W. G. Hudson, ways and means; Mrs. W. J. Jackson, parent education, and Mrs. Charles Fogg, library.

'Absurdia Jr.' Will Be Given Tuesday Night

"Absurdia in Suburdia Junior" will be presented Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Pine Grove School auditorium at the meeting of the Orinda Mothers Club.

It promises to be one of the most popular and interesting programs of the year, according to club officials.

The program will consist of dramatic skits and musical numbers by the chorus and orchestra. Participating in the program are the students and faculty of Pine Grove, Orinda, Sleepy Hollow, Glorietta and Del Rey Schools.

Frank Isola, physical education director of Orinda schools, will be master of ceremonies for this highly successful, well attended annual event.

The induction ritual will be conducted by the Kitchawong Tribe, headed by John Babcock.

The "Y" Indian Guides is an organization sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. to foster Father-son companionship. A tribe consists of a group of fathers and sons who meet together twice a month. There are 14 tribes in the Orinda area.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

It was divinely dildinely

THE FAIRHAIRED BOY OF THE ALAMEDA NAS O-CLUB packed up his clarinet to play at the Claremont Hotel Saturday night. And w/the magic of a Pied Piper, found that his fans & friends had trailed him there to share the opening night fun & fanfare.

Dick Dildine, bandleader, husband, father & suburbanite (he resides here on Chas. Hill) was best described by his wife, Pat, when she first met him—"He looks like Van Johnson, sings like Sinatra, and arranges like Dave Rose," she sighed. An apt description echoed by many who'd step quickly to "second" her e-motion!

THE ORINDA MAESTRO who sings, swings the baton, plays the sax & clarinet, wears an infectious smile & a twinkle in his eye, has a tremendous following from the Air Station where he continues to play during the week.

Judging from the crowd at Berkeley's Garden Hotel Sat. night, it was evident that his fans were following the leader. Pretty Pat Dildine at a ringside table, greeted a continual flow of opening-nite well-wishers, many coming from the peninsula & Marin as well as the Bay area.

FIRST NIGHTERS . . . Ellie & Lloyd Rasmussen barely missed a dance, were caught mid-floor for a camera shot w/the George Cooks of Chas. Hill . . . At another table were Norm & Evie Parker who are excited w/plans to sail soon on the Matsonia for a 25th wedding anniversary (Valentine's Day) celebration in the Islands.

Our Dancing Cliffords (it's a fulltime sched. w/George & Doris these days) joined Pat's table, later attracted ALL EYES as they cut a smooth samba across the dance floor of the Garden Room. Claire Roche catching the Cliffords for a brief chat. At a nearby table, Mgr. Dir. Murray Lehr and his wife (they bought the Kaiser home in Lafayette) in animated conversation w/Les Malloy, radio KATT personality. From Lafayette were Rose & Johnny Breslin starting for the dance floor at the first stacatto strains of violins on a haunting arrangement of "Tammy." Floyd and Charlotte Hansen of Piedmont were there, she being congratted on her brother Jack Block's recent State Honors as Outstdg. Young Man.

THERE FOR THE LAUNCHING of Dildine's music men was Mary Barrett of Orinda whose husband, Paul, plays trumpet & violin, the couple's two older sons looking neat & natty in their saddles, sportscoats & bow ties chatting w/their father during intermission.

A BUSY PLACE . . . Hailing friends was Sheriff Harry Brown who divided his time between the County Sheriff's Posse Installation party in L'Horizon Room as were Denise & Warren Detloff who had arrived w/Ray & Eleanor Perry of WC for the annual ceremonial soiree. Another group incl. the Frank Kerrigans and Leighton & Dorrie deMaeyer, he, later eve. taking a turn at the keyboard for a spontaneous 'sing' in the Terrace Room.

The Claremont Hotel has some magnificent million-dollar plans for expansion (on view in the lobby) but we hope it retains it's old exterior charm. It's NEW interior charm of Dick Dildine & Orch. is BOUND to be around for a long time!

They'll be mainly in Spainly

Brushing up on their Spanish for a move to the Mediterranean are Caroline & Jim Read who'll spend the next six mos. languishing in Italy, France, but mainly in Spain, where they'll occupy a Villa at Malata near Madrid. They fly to NY March 15 w/their three sons, Peter, Steve & Curt, who will attend school in Spain.

BING CROSBY'S ANNUAL Pro-Am TEE party attracted a score of localites last wknd . . . among them, the Jack Lackeys, the John Van Dynes who joined Jay & Yvonne Meyers who ALL brought home to their children those crazy crocodile loaves of french bread from the main street patisserie in Carmel. Also in the sportive crowd of spectators were Bob Hendricksons and the Art Lundblads, William Hanfords, and the William McGuires of Lafayette.

SKIING AT HEAVENLY Valley was the wknd. attraction for the Ivar Fjellbos (he's Norwegian, & right at home in the snow) who were joined by Al Thomas, Argentine fisherman — sportsman who fared pretty well on skis for the first time but not as expertly as on the tangos more familiar to him when the party danced later to Carmen Cavallero in Reno.

THE WELCOME MAT . . . Holiday visitors to the home of John & Nora Hampton were Swiss photographer Ernst Heiniger and his wife who recently returned from the Orient where they have been shooting film for Disney for two yrs. In honor of the famous photog. and his wife Jean (she's the scripter) who have filmed for Disney's "People & Places" series, the Hamptons hosted a special dinner party before the pair took off for Grand Canyon to do a documentary there.

Among guests were neighbors Marge Roth and her Doctor husband, Leonard, and Hal & Sabine O'Flaherty (they're aunt & uncle to TV columnist Terrence O'Flaherty) . . . Also Adel Khashaggi and Hassan Yassin, the two delightful & interesting UC students from Saudi Arabia who have bachelor digs on Miramonte Rd. and were enjoying their first AMERICAN Christmas for which the Hamptons tossed in LOTS of tradition!

Out of town guests, ALL who do much visiting w/friends in our suburbia, were Major & Mrs. Martin McCarthy, Sacramento, Capt. & Mrs. Richard Murhy and Helen & Philippe Koreneff from SF, Maree & Ed Stuber from Daly City, Vera & Dee Lount from Oakland.

Jane & Zach Montgomery of Overhill Ct. welcomed her sister Elinor Grafton to the mainland last wk. when she arrived from Guam w/her daughter Janey for an Orinda visit before the family takes up the new adventure of living in Japan.

And she was just in time for a party! That being the pre-dinner conclave hosted by fire commissioner head Zach for his fellow commissioners Gilbert Earle, Bert Dawson, Burton Kohler, Robert Aitcheson and Charles Langridge and their wives preceding the Outsdg. Man & Mother. Awards dinner held Saturday at the Willows. Also on hand for deserving toasts for duties well-performed were Drs. Carl Wellington Smith, George J. M. Prlain, Buolware Howard Conklin, Frank Spender and their spouses.

OH HAPPY DAY! Helen & Jack Behr of South Trail had a surprise NY's Day when they awakened to find a car pitched precariously over their bank on the one-way road on which they live. Attached to the car was a note "Sorry, will come tomorrow . . . Joe." No one could get their car in or out (Joe slept late) until LATE afternoon when Joe finally showed to move it at 4 o'clock!

OH HAPPIER DAY! And last Sunday while out looking at property, the same Helen & Jack Behr did a quick run thru the tunnel to Merritt Hospital where, 6 wks. ahead of schedule, they surprisedly welcomed a new third son! John Charles is cozily ensconced in the incubator (4 lbs. 6 oz.) and Mother Behr, Papa Behr & Baby Behr are all doing fine!

SHADES OF BACCHUS; Twenty varieties of wine, that is, w/a special Chef in the hors d'oeuvre dept. is the tempting invitation to attend the Vintage Festival being given by a score of Chldren's Hosptal Branches at Golden Gate Fields TURF CLUB next Sat., the 2th, 5-8. Tall & attractive Barbara Ferrone of Orinda heads the hostess committee.

43 Miramonte Students Trek To Snow Land

Forty-three Miramonte High School students tripped to Kalvea Lodge at Echo Summit last Saturday and Sunday on the first of several Ski Club safaris to the high Sierras. Accompanying them were four chaperone teachers from the Orinda High School, Misses Van Dam and Jacobsen and Messrs. Campbell and Darrah.

Although the Ski Club stayed at Kalvea, the members enjoyed good powder skiing at neighboring Edelweiss. According to those who were there, those Ski Clubbers who looked like the best potential "Olympic champions" were Pat Gilmore, Mike Farris, Jack Doty, Jim Hackett, Connie Cook and Caryn Anderson.

Robert Campbell, club advisor, stated, "This was one of the better ski trips that the club has taken so far. If it is any indication of the future trips, they should even be better."

The Miramonte Ski Club boasts one of the biggest organizations in the school. Miss Dana Cook, club prexy, states that approximately 140 students belong, or about 23 per cent of the present enrollment.

The club is planning a journey to the snow on February 7-9 at Cold Springs Lodge on the Sonora Pass. The apprentice skiers will probably ski at Dodge.

"Only reservations for 100 students will be made," states Campbell.

"The club is also making plans for trips in March and April. Besides these trips, the club is immediately working on a school dance, 'Sitzmark Stomp,' Friday, January 24."

Citizens' Group Slates Meeting On Recorder Pay

A meeting of taxpayers in Contra Costa who are interested in authorizing litigation against the $400 a month retirement pension of ousted County Recorder Ralph Cunningham will be held in the office of Jackson Davis, attorney, in the near future.

Intention to hold the meeting was jointly announced by Davis and Mrs. Mark Vallory to establish a time table and to lay plans for the organization of a committee to set up legal proceedings in the matter.

DAVIS, A PROMINENT trial attorney, has offered his services free of charge to the group. Davis has been chairman of the legislative committee of the Alameda County Bar Association and was chairman of that County's delegates to the annual Bar Convention in 1956-57. During Davis' chairmanship of the legislative committee approximately 78 percent of the State Bar's recommendations have been enacted into law by the State Legislature.

Davis's offices are located at 1533 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Cunningham was found guilty by a superior court jury in a non-criminal trial of malfeasence in office on two counts.

HE WAS ousted from office, which he has held since 1934, and that office was merged with that of the County Clerk's office by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors following the trial and the guilty verdict.

PROUD OWNER of the Santa Claus House which recently was St. Nick's headquarters at the Lafayette Christmas Pageant is 8-year-old Shirley DenDulk (left) of 133 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda. She plans to use it as a playhouse, but her brother, John (right), whose 11th birthday is today, has an idea that it would make a good clubhouse for boys. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. DenDulk, bought the Santa Claus House as a birthday present for Shirley. They purchased it from Dick Pape of Lafayette, who had won it at the Lafayette Christmas Pageant. The hut now stands in the DenDulk yard.

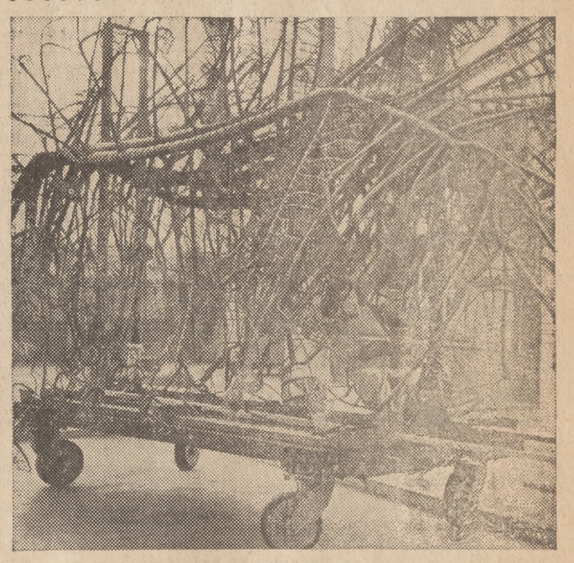
WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda



What have we here? A dinosaur skeleton? Or a monster from one of those spooky movies the kids seem to like so much? Wrong both ways. These are pre-formed telephone cables. They're for the switching equipment that helps handle your calls. How are these "gentle monsters" born? First, telephone people hammer nails in just the right places. Around this pattern—sort of like a jig-saw puzzle—they run thousands of wires. In the end, the whole thing's ready to fit right into a phone system. By doing wiring jobs like this in advance, we can expand service faster—to meet your growing needs.

Moving across town always creates problems. In the picture above, installer Judd Petersen and representative Paul Stark are explaining the new telephone system to Executive Director Mrs. Helen Macfarlane and Office Secretary Mrs. Dorothea Murray of the American Cancer Society

As many of you know, most of your local philanthropic organizations are now located at 2030 N. Main St. in Walnut Creek. The Telephone Co. recently assisted these groups by making their communications changeover as smooth as possible.

The organizations involved are: The Contra Costa Heart Association, The American Cancer Society, The Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County, The United Crusade, and The Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults. PACIFIC TELEPHONE

Hodgkin Is Heart Fund Special Gifts Chairman

Norman Hodgkin, Lafayette business man, has been named Secial Gifts chairman of the 1958 Heart Fund, according to Dr. Howard Flanders, resident of the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

This is the second appointment for the 1958 Heart Fund drive in Contra Costa County. Walter Ratcliff, Concord, has been named County chairman.

The drive will be held here from February 1 to 28, concurrently with the campaign throughout the nation. It will reach its peak on Heart Sunday, February 23, with a door-to-door collection by neighborhood volunteers.

Hodgkin lives at 5 Arbor Way with his wife and daughter Leslie, 2. The Hodgkins are new arrivals in the area. They resided in Marin County previously.

As Special Gifts chairman, Hodgkin will make a special appeal to industry and business to support the Heart Fund. This is the first year this particular committee has been part of the annual fund raising drive of the Heart Association in Contra Costa County.

A large proportion of the funds raised in Contra Costa County through the 1958 Heart Fund drive will be used here to support the research, education and community service programs of the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

At least 50 percent of the portion turned over to the American Heart Association, parent organization, is automatically earmarked for research.

More than $25 millions have been appropriated for research by the American Heart Association and its affiliates since 1949, the Association announced.

This past year saw a stepped up local research program on the part of the Contra Costa County Heart Association with grants made to support research work on medical equipment at the Contra Costa County Hospital and another research project on diet at the University of California being carried on by Dr. John W. Gofman.

Little fires for cooking, properly built, are safer, more efficient and more comfortable than bigger ones. Knowing when and how to cook on them is important and easy to learn.

Louis Stores Opens Sparkling New Lafayette Market

ORINDA SUN

Friday, January 17, 1958

THE NEW LOUIS STORE on Mt. Diablo Boulevard at Mt. View Drive, Lafayette, is Contra Costa County's newest supermarket. The Grand Opening celebration is now in progress. Here is a view of the exterior of the ultra-modern store, which has 14,000 square feet of floor space and parking facilities for over 100 cars. —Sun photo by Mattson

Louis Stores Offer Fun, Prizes at Grand Opening

Plenty of action, excitement and prizes are in store for Central Contra Costa shoppers through tomorrow as the grand opening celebration of the new Louis Store in Lafayette continues.

Low prices will add to the festivities promised by T. E. Louis, president of the Louis Store chain of stores, which was saluted on the television production, Success Story, recently.

THERE WILL be free orchids, free balloons, free samples and demonstrations, free groceries and the Calo Rescue unit, which is known throughout the State for its free rescue operations, will be on hand in Lafayette. All other Louis Stores will have special prices.

Just a few weeks ago the Calo unit was called in by the Contra Costa Sheriff's Office to locate two missing children in Pleasant Hill, who were feared drowned in the Contra Costa Canal.

Within one hour after the rescue team was called, the children were found by the bloodhounds to be safe and sound in a ravine.

A grand drawing February 7 will be a high point after the grand opening celebration when a free Thunderbird Junior will be presented to some lucky patron. Tickets are free and there is no purchase necessary.

The Thunderbird Junior is battery operated; has sealed beam headlights; electric horn and weighs 217 pounds. Its overall length is 66 inches and is 34 inches wide. It has a Ford starter and is geared for hill climbing.

It's now on display at the store which is located at Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Mt. View Drive just across from Happy Valley Road in Lafayette.

OTHER PRIZES to be given away are a boy's Columbia bike, patio table with umbrella, four speed automatic record player, Wilson's Golf woods, RCA Whirlpool air conditioner, electric razors for men and women plus a 50 cup automatic coffeemaker.

"Only the finest, everyday fresh produce will be offered at the new Louis Store. For example, we have a special offer on navel oranges which will be offered during our grand opening celebration all day today and tomorrow," said Bob Mason, recently appointed store manager of the new Louis Store in Lafayette and veteran store manager of the Louis firm.

"HERE'S CONTRA Costa's newest supermarket, modern as tomorrow, beautifully designed for easy comfortable shopping.

"It has a huge parking lot, is air conditioned, boasts refrigerated produce cabinets, self service meat department and many other features too numerous to mention.

"This store is owned and operated by Contra Costa residents who will guarantee finest quality at lowest prices," stated President T. E. Louis.

Mason Appointed To Manage New Lafayette Store

Louis Stores has prided itself since the company's inception on the caliber of its employees. This, president T. E. Louis said, is true of each man in the organization from the newest clerk to the executives at headquarters.

Store executives say the manager they have named to head the new Lafayette Louis Store at Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Mt. View is no exception. He is Bob Mason, a Lafayette resident.

MASON'S ABILITY to get along with the public, his know how and his progressive ideas in marketing and management marked him for the position, said Vernon Louis.

Appointment of Earl Nielsen as meat supervisor and Dewy Kern, meat department manager, were also announced this week by Louis.

Bob Francis, another local resident, is advertising manager. Vince LaRocca is the director of produce who has been termed the first man at the produce houses when they open long before dawn each day.

JOHN HOLMS heads the personnel unit of Louis Stores and Bill Hogan is its district manager for the stores in Berkeley, East Oakland and Castro Valley. Harold Holly is district supervisor for the Stores in this area.

Most of the firm's executives will be on hand to greet customers during the grand opening celebration of the Lafayette Louis Store which starts Thursday.

A special feature at the new Louis Store on Mt. Diablo Boulevard at Mt. View Drive, Lafayette, is the ultra-modern Super Saver Liquors store, owned by Harold B. Levy.

Super Saver Liquors offers a complete assortment of wines, liquors and beers, plus all the necessary and/or desirable "accessories" for the serving of potables.

EFFECTIVE DISPLAYS at the attractive large liquor store are assured by the latest in wire racks for dry wines and a new Italian champagne rack.

A large refrigerated case contains the extensive variety of beers.

MANY SPECIAL bargains are offered for the Grand Opening which Super Saver Liquors is celebrating today and tomorrow. This celebration will be in conjunction with the Grand Opening of the new Louis Store on the same days.

Well-known throughout this area, Levy was the owner of Super Saver Market in Lafayette for 10 years. Associated with him at the new liquor store is Angelo Corso, who worked with him all 10 years at the Super Saver Market.

"I am happy to be associated with the new Louis Store," Levy says. "I consider T. E. Louis, president of Louis Stores, the most progressive food market operator."

DEER

When over-protected, deer multiply beyond the carrying capacity of winter range, deplete the available food and suffer die-offs.

Sections, Space, Decor Are Louis Store Features

With 14,000 square feet of floor space and parking facilities for over 100 cars the new Louis Store is proudly opening its doors for business this week in Lafayette.

The Grand Opening celebration will continue through tomorrow.

The ultra-modern supermarket, which is owned and operated by Contra Costa County residents, will boast a completely sectionalized shoppers' haven with its meat, housewares, produce, health and beauty aides, grocery, liquor, dairy, delicatessen and gourmet's delight departments.

THE MT. DIABLO and Mt. View Drive store is the fourth in the Louis chain of stores which contains its own meat outlet. All meats are USDA Grade Choice and will be contained in the latest type of self-service dispenser.

Other features of the store are its more than 90 feet of frozen food cabinets and the toned pastel shades used on the walls and store shelves to enhance the attractiveness of the entire store in comparison with the rolling hills of Happy Valley which may be seen through the huge glass windows along the front of the store.

The new Louis Store is completely air-conditioned and will be managed by veteran store manager Bob Mason of Lafayette. The meat department will be operated by Dewy Kern of Walnut Creek.

T. E. LOUIS, owner of Louis Stores and a resident of Lafayette, said: "This is my neighborhood store and I plan to do my own family shopping there. I intend it to be one of the finest of all the Louis Stores throughout the area."

Louis Stores Success Yarn Is One of Greatest in US

The history of Louis Stores is probably the greatest success story of free enterprise in the Bay Area today and probably one of the greatest in the United States.

Today, Louis Stores boasts, and with justification, of its mass buying system; its chain of supermarkets which feature every item from beauty aides to sides of beef and one of the youngest groups of executive personnel in "big business."

But the mass operation that Louis Stores is today is a far cry from when T. E. Louis, president, opened his first Fairway store some 20 years ago.

Louis, as a young man, served his apprenticeship in a large Oakland Store. He then opened his own store in a big Oakland Market after learning the business.

This was the beginning of an enterprise which has placed him at the top among his merchandising competitors. T. E. Louis is the first to insist that the success of the Louis Stores has been made possible through "loyal staff members and a loyal family."

Mrs. Louis has worked with "Ed" through the years and today has her own office in the headquarters building.

One son, Vern, is vice president of the firm and the other, Ron, is a student at Stanford University. Ron also helps out in the business.

Louis store grand openings have come thick and fast since the elder Louis opened his first store. As a result, the firm has become known as one of the most progressive in the west among retailers.

The fact that Louis and the words good food have become synonamous in the minds of Californians has undoubtedly accounted for the tremendous growth of the firm.

One of the most popular features of Louis Stores has been the location of its units in suburban areas.

Employees of the Louis stores are urged to study the shopping habits of their patrons and to get to know preferences of the individual customer in each of the local communities where Louis Stores are located.

Most of the Louis stores are located in Contra Costa and Alameda counties.

The Louis Stores success story is not over though—other store locations are planned and Louis Stores continue to expand in Northern California.

Young people should learn to be good sportsmen, so let's take them hunting, fishing or camping when possible.

Superintendents Hold Meeting

County Schools superintendents of 14 Bay Area counties and their assistants met in Martinez Tuesday in the office of County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson Room 203, Court House.

This was their third meeting of this kind and the first in Contra Costa County. They were accompanied by assistant superintendents in charge of business and assistant superintendents in charge of educational services.

The business group, convening in the board room, took up the subject of elections, retirement, junior high tuition, contracts for county services to school districts and revision of Title V, the body of administrative rules and regulations governing schools in California.

An Open Letter to Our Board of Supervisors

The Honorable Board of Supervisors,
Contra Costa County:

Gentlemen:

Last Friday morning you held a special meeting at the instigation of Supervisor Mel Nielsen to discuss law enforcement problems in the central portions of the county with Sheriff Harry Brown.

The Sun wishes to commend you for this action.

We suggest, however, that next time such a situation arises you provide 24 hour notice as required by law. (The Sun was notified of the meeting, but not 24 hours in advance.)

We think that it is about time that the Board of Supervisors became more interested in the departments of the county government, and we think that these meetings between the board and the department heads should be encouraged.

Gentlemen, we remind you of the situation existing in the Recorder's office recently, when the absenteeism was general County knowledge, and when it took action by the Grand Jury before the situation could be corrected.

WOULD IT NOT have been better to have corrected the situation much earlier through a procedure similar to the one being used now with the Sheriff's office?

If your board, gentlemen, had called a meeting earlier with the Recorder and his staff, perhaps the whole thing could have been settled at great saving to the taxpayer.

Now, Supervisor Nielsen and other members of the board, we ask you to call, immediately, a meeting with the District Attorney to study the charges made by the 1956-57 Grand Jury.

These changes include:

1. "Possibility of questionable legal solicitation: Citizens who seek the District Attorney's assistance may wind up as clients of a deputy. When a case does not come within the County's jurisdiction, it is possible for the deputy to solicit the case for his private practice."

2. "Possible conflicts of interest: In their private practice, the District Attorney and his deputies become associated with many people.

"SOME OF THESE may violate the law. When this occurs there may be a tendency to minimize the charges; perhaps accepting a plea to a lesser offense.

". . . The solution of our Federal Government to this problem has been to prohibit the employee associations which might lead to conflict of interest."

3. "Neglect of County buisness: It is possible that in some instances the attorneys have done an inadequate job of preparing cases handled for the County because of preoccupation with the problems of their private practice."

There are other recommendations too, gentlemen of the Board of Supervisors, and we feel that you should review them immediately before calling the District Attorney before you for a discussion of the points in question.

Again, may we commend you on this new spirit in county government — taking an interest in the manner in which your departments are handled and the way in which they operate.

We hope that the meeting you had with the Sheriff was beneficial to you both, and that better law enforcement and improved efficiency will result.

Similarly, we will be eagerly awaiting your meeting with the District Attorney in the hope that the situation will be parallel. We would like to see some action taken on the Grand Jury's recommendations.

Largest Garbage Dump?

By BOB RAPIDA

Sunday, Alan Davis, a friend of mine who lives in San Francisco, and I decided to take a little tour around Contra Costa so he could see what I had been bragging about.

We took that little ride, went from my home in Pleasant Hill up to Martinez, through Port Costa over to Crockett, dropped over the hill into El Cerrito, cut back into San Pablo, over the ridge into Orinda and drove back through Lafayette, Walnut Creek and finally over the freeway to Pleasant Hill.

IT RAINED PART of the way, but on the whole the hills were verdant; the waters of Suisun Bay quiet and the homes were beautiful.

Wow! Did I have a case on why to live in Contra Costa and get out of the crowded, dirty city.

Sure, I had a case, until he gently pointed out to me the tons of junk, garbage, beer cans and hundreds of unsightly roadside signs which line our county roads and even our newest and best freeways.

The worst case was the old "Burma Road" from Martinez to Port Costa. It's hard to tell if your driving along a beautiful twisting mountain road or through the world's largest garbage dump.

IT'S NOT MUCH better going through Franklin Canyon over San Pablo Dam Road. All Mt. Diablo Boulevard looks as though motorists take great pride in throwing beer cans, bottles, nails, etc. into the gutters.

As for the roadside signs: Why some of them looked ready to fall over and most had not been painted in the past 20 years. Paper was piled around their supporting posts and in general they were flimsy, little, make shift signs that detracted from the natural beauty of the area.

The clincher for the discussion about dirty streets, et al, was when the driver just in front of us, dumped out his ashtray at 50 miles an hour with butts and ashes clinging like glue to my windshield.

JUST CARELESSNESS, nothing more. He didn't mean for the butts and ashes to fly up rather than down. But there is more to it than that.

Multiply all the times that some motorist throws something out of his car by the number of motorists in the county and before long, we will have the world's biggest gargage dump rather than one of the most beautiful counties in the nation.

If a great percentage of those so-called advertisements on the roadsides are not cleared away, it'll be hard to see the countryside through the signs.

THERE ARE county ordinances governing the placement of signs and their condition, but it is an almost impossible task to patrol the thousands of miles of county roads trying to enforce these ordinances. The California Highway Patrol and the Sheriff's Office have better things to do than to nab "litterbugs."

So, what can be done?

In Southern California, every gas station gives out "Litterbags" free of charge. The various counties have set up "Litterbag Headquarters."

The Litterbags are nothing more than a paper sack. The Litterbag Headquarters are a garbage can which is clearly marked by a sign some several hundred feet in front of it.

THE GARBAGE companies and the counties cooperate in picking up and dumping of the Litterbug Headquarters.

Can it be done in Contra Costa County?

I don't know.—Maybe, if anyone is interested in spearheading the program.

"If I could only comb my own hair..."

That isn't much to ask of life.
To move a hand. To raise an arm. To become self-reliant.

TODAY, it's just a wish that wells up in a polio patient. TOMORROW, it may be a blessed reality.

For the MARCH OF DIMES not only helps save life. It helps make life worth living for the thousands throughout the nation who STILL struggle to overcome the disabilities inflicted by crippling polio.

Of 300,000 survivors of paralytic polio, one in three could still benefit from techniques of modern rehabilitation developed through the MARCH OF DIMES.

Bad Time Stories for All Contra Costa Taxpayers

by Pat Pending

Here is a bad time story for Contra Costa county taxpayers and other taxpayers of our great state!

Once upon a time (in 1850 to be exact) someone decided that it would be fitting and proper to build a lasting monument honoring George Washington — the "Father of Our Country."

This was, indeed, a noble and patriotic enterprise for George Washington certainly was one of our truly great men. If it had not been for him we might now be dropping our "H'es."

ANYWAY, EACH state in the Union sent a piece of its native stone to be incorporated in a fitting memorial to this great man. California sent a commemorative stone consisting of gold quartz — at a cost of $934.00.

This piece of gold quartz is to be found today at the 120 foot level in the Washington Monument.

Now comes the funny part!

THIS PIECE OF GOLD quartz cost $934.00. It was "paid for" from a small bond issue bearing interest at 36 per cent per year.

After California became a state, these bonds were "refinanced" in 1851 at a lower interest rate. The 1851 bonds together with other earlier bond issues, were refinanced" in 1857, and again in 1873, after which the University of California and the State School Land Fund purchased most of them.

When hte bonds matured in 1895, the state was unable to redeem them (I don't know why either!) and the voters in 1892 had refused to "refinance" them. So, the State Legislature paid off a few held by private individuals and passed an Act" providing for payment of interest on the endowment holding indefinitely."

Comes 1940:

There are outstanding $2,277,500.00 of 6 per cent bonds issued in 1875, representing California's share of the cost of the Washington Monument.

Russian automobile manufacturers are said to be experimenting with a small rear-engined car to be called theh Byelka (Squirrel). It has an air-cooled motor and it is claimed it will go 145 miles on a gallon of gas.

Letters to The Editor

DEAR EDITOR,

Have you received your county tax bill lately? I'm sure you have and I'm sure you'll remember it for quite some time, as it was quite a blow — especially the amount alloted to schools in Contra Costa County.

Almost everybody has their own private solution that they will gladly explain to any person who has the patience to listen quietly for several hours, because thats how long it usually takes.

Being of the same crowd I have my solution also, although it isn't original—I read it in a magazine several months ago.

It seems that there is a state in the middle west that had the same problem and they decided to do something about it, although their new schols were out of this world. They used the most expensive architects, land, material etc. This however was their problem — in blunt language the schools cost too much!

Sooooo, they all go their little pointed heads together one day in a great big circle and came up with a stupendous, colossal idea that went as follows.

First, they eliminated the plush architects; second they used two simple plans for all new schools to be built, practical and economical, yet pleasing in appearance.

Third, they planned far enough ahead and bought land for these future schools before the sellers swore that there was oil on the property and that the school district was robbing them.

Now this seems such a simple solution, that I'm sure it would never pass the censors, but at least I got it off my chest.

Auxiliary Holds Meet

The Contra-Costa County Medical Auxiliary met for luncheon on Tuesday at Riverview Lodge in Antioch for the first meeting of the new year.

Will You Help Break Highway Traffic Mess?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

An additional, west-bound lane MUST be built on the Highway connecting the Lafayette By-pass with the Orinda inner-change! And now!

If I sound adamant, I am. And I know I am speaking for thousands upon thousands of commuters, and others.

The traffic jam at the Upper Happy Valley Road area where the Lafayette By-pass ends must be broken. This mess in turn ties up traffic all the way to Orinda.

It's been done before

The solution is simple—add a third lane on the highway heading toward Oakland, so the morning traffic can flow smoothly. The State Division of Highways did this between the Orinda inner-change and the Tunnel some time ago — and on their own initiative. I belive they used emergency funds.

Last summer The Sun and others asked State Engineers about doing this between Lafayette and Orinda. They said that the proposed inter-change at Happy Valley and the freeway to Orinda would probably be started in the not-too-distant future and it would be a waste of time and money to add the extra lane.

But—and this is a big but—funds for any part of this work were not included in the last highway budget, which was recommended by the Division of Highways. I thought at least some of it would be.

Shall we wait until 1961?

We cannot wait until the funds are included in the 1958-'59 budget. This would mean no relief until work is completed sometime in 1961. We cannot wait that long.

If you concur, do something about it.

Write a short letter or a long letter or a post card expressing your views, to: Mr. C. M. Gilliss, Director, California Department of Public Works, Public Works Building, 1120 N Street, Sacramento 5, California.

Drag out some carbon paper and send a copy to B. W. Booker, Assistant State Highway Engineer, Division of Highways, 150 Oak Street, San Francisco, 5, Calif.

If you have more carbon, send a copy to the Board of Supervisors, Contra Costa County, Martinez, California. (This board DID NOT even mention Diablo Freeway in their recommendations to the State last year.)

More to do . . .

Let's do more. Ask your neighborhood improvement association, your town-wide improvement association or city council, the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation, the Contra Costa Commuters Association and any other group to send a letter or resolution to the above.

This is an emergency measure. It has been done before; it can be done by the State now. Will you help?

Business Pickup is Compared in Report

The City of Concord has realized a 51.3 per cent gain in the number of businesses in the past five years, compared to 21.5 per cent for Walnut Creek, 23.3 per cent for Orinda, and 19.2 per cent for Lafayette, according to a report released by Dun and Bradstreet, San Francisco.

These and other gains averaged in with losses suffered in areas result in a 6.4 per cent gain in the number of businesses for the county, taken as a whole.

The largest gain was recorded in Danville — 70 per cent in the years 1952 to 1957.

Other gains were as follows: Antioch, 8.4 per cent; Brentwood, 11.3; Oakley, 10.2.

Losses were as follows: Martinez, .8 per cent; Pinole, 3.1; Pittsburg, 2.8; Rodeo, 3.5; San Pablo, 11.8.

"There were 4,294 businesses listed this past year in Contra Costa County — an increase of 259 businesses over 1952," said R. F. Cathcart, District manager of the San Francisco office of Dun & Bradstreet.

He based his facts on the current November, 1957, Reference Book. He said that the 47 counties of northern California as a whole showed an increase of 2.3 per cent fewer businesses than in 1952.

The Reference Book lists only manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and some service companies like service stations and laundries. It does not include all professional and service businesses like barber shos, real estate and stock brokers.

The actual number of businesses in 1952 and in 1957 in certain the areas are as follows:

Concord, 353-534; Walut Creek, 363-441; Orinda, 60-74; Lafayette, 198-236; Danville, 50-85.

Ultrasonic echoes from the human body can be used in the early diagnosis of cancer, a group of Japenese researchers reported. The echoes are produced by pulsating ultrasonic waves which are beamed into the body and then bounced back from various internal organs much in the manner of reflected radar waves.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER
YE 4-3818

The Bill Nodder home was alive with activity on New Year's day. A group of friends gathered there to watch the Rose Bowl Game after which Gladys served the most picturesque and delicious buffet supper. A typical southern menu featured, as it's main dish, "Hopping John!"

This has, as its main ingredient, black eyed peas — and did you know that way down south there is an old, old saying which states — "Eat peas on New Year's Day and you will have plenty of everything the rest of the year." The Nodders and their guests will bear watching through the year 1958!

THE CHARLES Cunninghams have returned from a motor trip to "Paul's Valley," Oklahoma, where they spent the holidays visiting with Mrs. Cunninghams mother. "Chip" and Chris accompanied their parents on the two weeks trip. When they returned it was time to celebrate Chip's birthday.

His wish was to invite five other boys to a "regular" man's size chicken dinner, play games and then go to Danville where a "real cool" Western was playing — and that's exactly what they did.

Back from China Lake

Sue and Ed McCarty, former well known residents who now live in "China Lake," spent the holidays visiting in this area. Their son, Johnny, enjoyed spending the entre two weeks vsiting in the Joe Grace home where he renewed old friendships with Jerry Grace and other former neighbors. Sue and Ed spent one week-end with Gwen and Joe — the men spending most of their time hunting and the gals — what else — having a "gab fest!"

BETTY AND TED Merrill and Jean and Dick Kellogg combined as hosts at a gala New Years Eve party. Their guest were Pearl and Wayne Barrett, Camille and Robert Simpson and Delores and Fred Cochran.

These last three couples are enthusiastically planning a stay at Twain Harte where the Simpsons have secured a cabin. All of their children will be included in the snowy vacation — with the exception of the very small fry. Delores, a novice at skiing — is hoping for a helpful hand from Camille and Pearl (the latter and her husband have just returned from a stay at Dodge Ridge).

Lombardy Branch at It Again

That ever active "Lombardy" branch of the Children's Hospital is at it again. For the fifth year they are sponsoring a Bridge Series with Mrs. William G. Siles as instructor. Eager pupils will learn from 12:30 to 2:30 and the Intermediates will convene from 2:30 to 4:30. Interested? Well then, call either Joan Kendall, CL 4-2604 or Peg Young, CL 4-3507.

Between Christmas and New Years, Joan and Dick Kendall and their daughter, Vivian, stayed at "Deer Park Lodge" and had the time of their lives. Apparently a very popular place, the lodge was also headquarters for Caroline and Jim Reed (and their family), Carol and Bill Platt, Sue and Jack Beckett and Barbara and Jack Rieser. There's one in every crowd" — this year it was Barbara Rieser who did the well known ankle breaking job! Anyway, they all had a "ball" what with wonderful skiing and happy get-togethers in the evenings.

THE KENDALLS ARRIVED home just in time to don festive garb and join friends at an impromptu "Eve" party at Mary Lou and Lee Paul's lovely home in Orinda. Others there were Peggy Chuck Beckett, Peggy's brother, Webster, who was visiting from Ohio, Vivian Spaich and Louise and Kriste Baldwin. The group joined in dancing and at midnight shared a scrumptious feast.

Tropical Pool is Focus

Another delightful New Years Eve party was co-hosted by the Harry Martins and the Don Huckes preceding the dinner dance at the Orinda Country Club.

Guests assembled, mainly, in the Martin's "Hi-style Leisure Room" (so dubbled by their architect) — which is the essence of exotic glamour. One of the highlights of the room is a tropical pool into which a waterfall cascades — and on this particular night, colorful balloons, like lilies, were floating. The guests went on to the club to form a large no-host table. Some of those enjoying the gay evening were the Walter Boysens, Frank Dutras, Claire Fischells, Watt Edwards, Curt Cambells and the Norman Gays.

Did you watch Bing Crosby's T. V. program from Pebble Beach last Sunday? If so, didn't it make you "drool." Well, there were SOME lucky people who didn't have that problem for they were right on the spot and having the most wonderful time!

THERE IS JUST NO other week-end venture that can quite compare with that one. Four couples, the Bill Hanfords, Carroll Petersons, Bill McGuires and Art Lundblads joined in making their plans and stayed at the "Colonial Terrace" in Carmel. They enjoyed every moment; from continental breakfast time, then "slushing" through the mire, dinners at such fabulous places as the "Spindrift" — where they though the food and service were especially good.

Eyewitnesses Use Television

Also spotted in the gallery were June and Bill McNevin, Fay and "Hop" Hopkins, Jean and Joe Downs, Eleanor and Ramsey Underwood, Ruth and Bud Edwards, and Lucille and Dana Hamlin. Marcellin and Harry Martin have a distinct advantage in that they, yearly, are houseguests of friends in Carmel who have more friends who just happen to have a lovely home on, YES, the 17th green!

As it turned quite chilly Sunday afternoon — they retreated to the warmth of the interior and watched Bing's program while, at the same time, viewing the activity through the large windows. Can you top THAT?

Conversation Topics Galore

Recently, in Danville, the C. Wadworth White home (and such a lovely one it is, too) was the setting for an Open House. The guests were the members of the Mary Doyle Unit and their husbands.

Highest Volume To Be Reviewed For AAUW Unit

An unusual and exciting evening is being planned by the Book Section for the Orinda Branch of the American Association of University Women when it meets at 8 p.m. next Wednesday in the all-purpose room of Glorietta School.

Television and stage personality William "Chip" Wood of Books Inc., San Francisco, who is well known for his reviews of current books, will present the recently published "Poets in a Landscape," by Gilbert Highet This is said to be an intriguing story, and guests will be most welcome at the meeting.

Since the plot centers in Italy, Mrs. R. H. Neddersen and her committee plan decorations of an early Roman classical theme.

Mrs. Mary Dorr, Book Section chairman, will introduce Wood.

Hostesses will be Mesdames L. J. Trescony, C. O. Harding, C. F. Blevins, H. N. Cam, R. H. Neddersen and E. W. Davis.

Miss Vance Is Engaged To Student

The engagement of Miss Virginia Vance of 1465 Rancho View Drive, Lafayette, and Peter Hindes of Kentfield was announced this week.

Miss Vance is a sophomore in the College of Letters and Science at the University of California, Berkeley, and holds the office of treasurer in the Alpha Phi Sorority. Her parents are Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Vance of Lafayette. Dr Vance is a professor of accounting at the University of California

The future bridegroom is a senior at the UC College of Engineering and is vice-president of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

The announcement was made during a Christmas party held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Bruck or Ross.

Hostess, Betty White, the outgoing president of the group, looked ravishing in a deep blue satin sheath which set off her golden hair to perfection. Especially spectacular and interesting was the approach to their home.

The driveway was lined with hurricane lamps and close to the entrance was a hugh brazier in which an equally hugh fire burned all evening. Another conversation piece was a tremendous aluminum bowl which Betty had trimmed with red bows and filled to overflowing with loquots and red berries. (she since has been besieged with requests for borrowing same).

The feature I like best: The three boys in the White household helped with passing canapes and such — dressed in dark suits AND bright red velvet vests. Also helping were their two adorable daughters. Azella Woodburn looked stunning as she arrived wearing a princes type black velvet coat with a white collar and Wilda Riser was most holiday-ish in a red accordian pleated felt skirt topped with a luscious white sweater. Glamorous Peg Richardson was GLAMOROUS in a silk printed sheath.

Junior League Groups Gather

The regular monthly meeting of the Junior League of Oakland took the form of work meetings on Tuesday.

Small groups of members met at 9:30 a.m., to prepare decorations for the coming gala "Daze of Gold," which will be held at the Hotel Claremont on February 28.

East-of-the Tunnel members gathered in four homes. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Hoover, Lafayette; Mrs. George Peterson, Danville, and Mrs. Robert Shurtleff and Mrs. Fred Cummings, Orinda.

Women's Club Plans Program On Home Decor

On Tuesday, "World of Ideas," the home decorating program with the International Flavor, will be presented by Celanese Corporation of America, to the Walnut Creek Women's Club.

The program will be divided into four parts showing how the ancient customs, architecture and colors of Denmark, Spain, Austria, and several countries in Asia have been translated into American fabrics.

Mrs. Frank Y. Kupper, chairman of the home and garden section, will read the commentary on the 55 color slides in this program, which includes 35 room settings.

In addition to the room settings, the program includes a group of colorful pictures of the countries visited. These are from the pages of Holiday Magazine.

Swanson-Layden Betrothal Told; To Wed in June

Of interest to many throughout the Bay Area and on the East Coast is the forthcoming wedding of Christine Alvida Swanson to Timothy Browning Layden.

The setting for the ceremony will be in St. Stephens Church, Orinda, on June 28, following the future bride's graduation from the University of California.

News of the romantic tidings was first made recently at the Delta Delta Delta sorority house on the campus where Chris makes her headquarters, which was followed by an informal champagne party for the young people at the home of Tim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Ekkeles Colvin, on Van Ripper Lane, Orinda.

For the latter occasion an entire pink motif was carried out with pink roses, pink champagne and a pink wreath attached to the front door, with steamers inscribed with the names Chris and Tim.

AMONG THE 60 or more guests were Dr. and Mrs. John Compertz; Messrs. and Mesdames James Felchlin, Clay Sorrick, Ritchie Smith, Ben Johnson and John McFarland; Tom Johnson, Mrs. Perc Brown (Mr. Brown was in the East on business at the time) and Carole Holebird, all of Orinda.

From Hillsborough traveled the Robert Alexanders, and Mr. and Mrs. William Besler were present from Piedmont. Also present was Vickie Carroll, president of the Tri Delt house, a close friend of Christine's.

Among the future benedict's relatives were Dr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Burdick. Dr. Burdick is a Cal professor and author of the best selling novel, "Ninth Wave."

THE ENGAGEMENT was also heralded during the Christmas holidays at a cocktail and buffet super party given at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Swanson, in Short Hills, N. J.

Friends and relatives of the Swanson family which formerly lived in Orinda, came from Washington, D. C., and New Jersey to greet Chris, who was home for the holidays, and to hear the news.

Christine was graduated from Acalanes High School and besides being a Tri Delt is a member of the Thistle Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay. She has one sister, Judith, who will graduate from high school in the East in June, and two brothers, Karl and Kenneth.

TIMOTHY was graduated from Piedmont High School and attended the University of Arizona and San Francisco State College. He was affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta fraternity at the Arizona campus and is a member of the University Club of San Francisco.

He has just been appointed Pacific Coast advertising promotion manager for the Wall Street Journal in San Francisco.

The couple will make their future home in San Francisco following the wedding.

Sun's Annual Father Children's Game Set

LeRoy Doss Star Against Fresno St. On Moraga Woods

Doing pretty much as expected, lanky LaRoy Doss was in control of the Saint Mary's Gael scoring statistics as the team fixed their sights on Fresno State and The Sun's Second Annual Father and Children's night tomorrow.

Joe Barry and Dick Sigaty, the Moragans starting forwards are pushing Doss hard for the lead in every category.

He leads the squad in scoring with 158 points for an average of 14.4 of them per game. Barry is only 20 behind him at 138 with one less game under his belt and Sigaty, who is averaging 16 points in WCAC play is moving up fast with a season's contribution of 130 markers.

Sigaty and Barry have 55 and 50 field goals to rank 2-3 behind Doss' 65, Barry is hitting at a better percentage than the leader —41.9 to 41.5.

In the free throw department, Barry tops Doss 34-30, with guard Andy Sloan ranking third with 27. Bobby Dold, the other member of the Gael starting five, is hitting the best charity percentage at better than 87%.

In the business of patrolling the boards, Sigaty is making it no contest, pulling off 114 rebounds—better than ten a game. Doss follows him up with 89 for the eleven games to date.

The team as a whole, is hitting better than 61 points per contest, compiling 259 field goals and 156 charity tosses for 674 points.

Their opponents are doing somewhat better as might be deduced from the Gaels' 4-7 season record, hitting 718 points, a shade over 65 of them each time out.

The Gaels' are working on a two game win streak—both WCAC contests, to merit them a tie with the USF Dons at the top of the pack.

The next action the troops of coach Jim Weaver will see will be an extracurricular tussle with Fresno State, tomorrow night as The Sun's Second Annual Father and Children's Night gets underway in Moraga. They'll celebrate the end of semester finals with a three game road trip—January 25 and 27 at Idaho State and then a singleton January 29 at Regis of Denver.

Panthers Rip Mats In Varsity, Bee Tilts in Orinda

The Miramonte Matadors played host to the Antioch Panthers Tuesday afternoon only to drop the Bee game 35-14 and were dumped in a varsity tilt 32-29.

The Bees' only consolation was the fact that their forward Bill Caldwell tied Antioch's center Bill Olds for game honors at six.

IN THE VARSITY encounter, once again the Mats put up a good early game battle only to lose pace at the usual point to go down to defeat.

Antioch really won in the first quarter when they took a 10-2 lead. The Matadors came back in the second quarter to trail 18-12 at the half way marker.

Miramonte scored 10 points again in the third quarter thanks to Bob Hudson and Bill Houston who bagged a pair of field goals apiece plus a field goal by Frank Feldman.

The Matadors failed to gain ground in the fourth canto as each club hit for seven.

Sports Night is Thursday!

By MEL ALAMANO

The second annual Sports Night sponsored by the Walnut Creek Athletic Association will be held on Thursday from 7:30 p.m. to 9 at the Las Lomas High School gymnasium.

This year it's "Welcome the Giants" and variety show night! All proceeds will go to the Walnut Creek Junior League athletics. Funds are needed to complete the new baseball field and improve others for the "future greats."

LAST YEAR THE Association through its projects spearheaded a new regulation diamond. Bleachers and assistance in improving playing conditions are important in this year's program.

The Association works in cooperation with the Walnut Creek Recreation Department in supplying coaches and interested parents. Everyone's purpose is to make it possible for some 600 boys to play summer baseball. It's not as easy as it sounds.

The variety show portion will be directed by "Red" Gillham, local entertainer, and leader of boys baseball. He has numerous "acts" lined up.

It is worth the purchase of a ticket just to see Red's version of "Wabash Cannonball." Also, a young group known as the "Little Richards" of Lafayette will perform.

A PANTOMIME will be given by two East Contra Costa students, Al Ludham and Gray Espinosa, and there will be a comedy violin act and others, fast and entertaining.

The other part of the show will have top sports figures in person. Walter Mails, Eddie Montague and other Giant officials will be there—also Don Ferrarese, Baltimore pitcher, and local resident, Ferris Fain, former American League batting champ, Harry Lavagetto, Washington Senator manager.

We'll have scouts for the major league teams, college and high school coaches and others whose names we can't announce as definite yet.

IT WILL be the biggest bargain night in history for those who like sports and entertainment!

Tickets are on sales at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center, Sports and Games Inc. at 1604 Locust Street and are available from Association members.

They will also be available tomorrow at the Recreation Center when the boys sign up for baseball. Association officials have asked that a parent accompany his or her boy to the signup, which will be open from 1 to 4 p.m.

Pleasant Hill Rams Jab Dopester by Upsetting Two

The Diablo Valley Athletic League enters into its second week of play tonight and taking a look at the first week of play the dopesters weren't far off the beat.

Diablo and Pitt were picked as favorites and to date they have each registered two wins as against no losses.

LAS LOMAS was picked as a dark horse, but went down twice to Diablo and Pleasant Hill in that order.

The Pleasant Hill Rams have been the upstart copping wins over Antioch and Las Lomas when it counted most—in league play. The circuit does appear well balanced with no one so far off the pace that they can't pull an upset somewhere along the schedule.

GAMES TONIGHT find Las Lomas at Antioch. The Panthers have a top player in Dave Kirkpatrick. Stop him and you stop Antioch.

Las Lomas is due to bounce back—pick them to do it tonight.

Acalanes plays Miramonte at Orinda and should win on height and backboard control although the Matadors have done surprisingly well on the boards.

PLEASANT HILL at Pacifica and its close here but the Rams are high and figure to win. The Spartans' home court will make the go close.

Pittsburg plays Diablo in the big one—this will play before a packed gym—the best bet is Pitt to cop the Bee game going away. In the varsity, it's close, but the edge to the Pirates who are developing fast. Diablo is at its best now—it remains to be seen if they can hold a keen competitive edge.

All games start with the Bees at 7:30.

TUESDAY FINDS another round of play with the Bees getting under way at 3:30.

Las Lomas meets its Waterloo at Pittsburg. Miramonte has another row too tough to hoe, peg Las Lomas a double winner at Miramonte.

The Dons play Diablo at Concord. Using the same type of play, the Dons could make it close—the Devils to win with the Don Bees copping the nod over a Devil club that is better than they have shown.

Pacific tangles with Antioch and somehow it's the Spartans who could develop into a top club before the season gets much older.

Pirates Outmesh Mats 52-19; 42-27

The Pittsburg Pirates opened the league season in flashy fashion when their Bees waltzed to an impressive 52-19 win over the Miramonte Bees.

In the varsity game Pittsburg's quint posted a final 42-27 win, but only after Miramonte made a surprising stand in the early stages. Handicapped by lack of seniors, plus a score injuries, the Matadors have had tough luck.

IN THE PITT game, played at Miramonte, the home fans had something to yell about as the Matadors pulled a surprise to lead 9-6 the first quarter largely due to forward Klint Dana's five points on a pair of field goals and a free throw.

Pitt closed the gap by two points as they outscored the Orinda five six to four in the second quarter only to still trail 13-12.

Pitt got the word at the half as they came back with a 19 point output to take a 31-18 lead as they held Miramonte to five points.

Little forward Willie Costa was the Big Gun in the Pitt attack as he meshed four field goals in the fatal third period of play.

Scoring slowed in the final quarter with the Pirates hitting for 11 and the Matadors for nine.

PITT'S CENTER John Nord topped the scoring with 11 on four field goals and three free throws while Coston was not far behind with 10.

Neither club was hot in the shooting as Pitt hit 18 for 59 and six for 15 at the charity line.

Sideline Slants

One if By Air and Two By Land is New Grid Rule

By ERWIN MATTSON

The Intercollegiate Rules Committee has come up with a new one in regards to the conversion try.

It now gives a team one point as it always has been if they kick the conversion try and two if they score by means of a pass or run.

IT HAS ALSO moved the conversion try back from the two yard line to the three yard line. As a matter of record it's the first change in the scoring points since 1906. There was one time when the conversion try was from the one yard line.

The new rule has brought a diversity of opinion. Chances are that it will eliminate a good percentage of place kicking. The first team to score may go for the place kick — the second will determine their play on whether the first team missed or made it.

As several have put it—it will add fuel to the fires of the Monday morning quarterbacks. They already have plenty — but it seems to be a law of nature of "them who has gets more."

THE PREP regulations haven't come out as yet, but chances are such a change won't occur and it will make one more rule difference between the two to add to the confusion of the already confused spectator.

Chances are the prep rule makers will watch the results in collegiate ball for a year and then make a change of their own if it works well.

★ ★ ★

Prep wrestling is growing by leaps and bounds and tomorrow will find many in the local area going to Berkeley to take in the Novice Meet being sponsored by the California School for the Blind.

The blind are very worthy opponents who win far more than they lose.

They have a keen sense of balance and take to the mat game with interest and skill. Their power of concentration is great and makes one realize what can be done with interest and work.

★ ★ ★

WRESTLING is a good spectator's sport and more fans will be attracted once they have a chance to observe it.

Too many now have a picture of "pro" wrestling as witnessed via television. The pro grame is far removed from the amatuer game where skill and finesse count most.

The professional mat game is for the most part a vaudeville act and lots of it not very good at that.

Lack of knowledge of the game makes a good part of the public a gulliable lot. The preps wrestle a total of six minutes and it's "put out" all the way. It's amazing how much energy can be expanded in such a short period of time.

EMPHASIS IS placed on controlling and pinning an opponent. Punishing holds are taboo — in fact draw a penalty if even attempted.

Wrestling is recognized as a leading body developer along with swimming as one uses every muscle in the body.

Don Varsity Opener Lost To Pacifica

The Acalanes Dons were edged by Pacifica in their varsity league opener Friday 47-44 after the Don Bees had coasted to a 35-17 win in the prelim.

The Don Bees were paced by Tom Strain who collected nine points while Mel Simpson aided the winning course with eight.

IN THE VARSITY game the Dons were tight as a bass drum in the early stages after Pacifica shot to an early lead—in fact they held a comfortable lead until the closing minutes.

The Spartans held a 13-8 first quarter margin and were in front at the half 29-22. The Dons picked up a point in the third stanza and as they edged the home club 12-11.

The Dons spurted in the closing minutes when they scored 10 on five field goals, while Sparta hit a lone field goal by Guard Stan Olive. In contrast, Acalanes had but one free throw and missed five. Pacifica hit on five out of 10.

MAC HANCOCK put the Dons in contention in the closing minutes with two drive in field goals while Paul Colin bagged a pair and Jellet Morgan hit from the foul line on a set shot.

Leading 45-44, the Spartans doggedly hung on and with five seconds to go got ball control on a jump.

Fouled with two seconds to go. Olive pumped through a pair of charity tosses and it was all over before the Dons could get the ball downcourt.

Big League Style Opener for Rams Wins Bee 54-32; Varsity 40-26

The Pleasant Hill Rams opened in big league style Friday night when they racked up the Antioch Panthers in no uncertain fashion.

The Ram Bees playing on their home court massaged the hoop for a nifty 54-32 win paced by ace Ron Yamomoto who collected a cool 23 points on his own.

In the varsity game coach Art Poulin's Rams took a 9-6 first quarter lead and were never headed although it was close for three quarters being 21-16 at the half and 30-26 at the end of three quarters of play.

The rout took place in the final stanza. Dan Ipson started it all off with a field goal and Dave Kirkpatrick and Gil Cervantes keep the ball rolling with a free throw apiece for the Panthers.

The Rams then opened with a straight 10 points on free throws by Bill Locatelli and Sid Maestri along with a pair of fields goals on rebound play by Bill Dutton and a layup shot on the part of Locatelli.

The score stood at 42-28 when Antioch hit the score column for a lone point on a free throw by Ivar Kent, then the Rams rolled for another seven points on another lay-in by Locatelli, a pair of free throws by Mac Thorp plus a free throw and a shot from 15 feet out by Locatelli.

That settled the issue although Antioch came back with three points in the closing minute.

Locatelli wound up with tops in the scoring column with his 18 points. Dutton netted 14. Kirpatrick paced Antioch with 14.

Residents Praise Youth Concert, Program Benefits

Several Walnut Creek residents this week commented on the third season of Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts, scheduled to open with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, January 26 at Las Lomas High Auditorium, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Jean Brownrigg, manager of Goldman's, 1276 Broadway said, "I think this is a most marvelous thing. Whole communities have become musically conscious of their musical and artistic resources from just such a start as this."

Mario Ganio, instructor of instrumental music in the Walnut Creek Public Schools, said, "It is important for children to hear all kinds of music, not just the orchestra or the chorus, but ballet music, solo instruments, music on records and music of various national origins.

I TEACH 160 children in beginning and advanced band in the Walnut Creek schools. This is a wonderful opportunity for them to widen their listening experience," he added.

President of the Walnut Creek Branch, American Association of University Women is Mrs. J. A. Buckley. Emphasizing the importance of the child's home training, she said, "The parent has a unique opportunity and responsibility to lead the young child to all kinds of experiences which give him a respect for intelligent achievement, and some intimation of the worth of the world's great literature, music and art.

"Youth Concerts is opening new doors to our children in this area," she said.

Douglas Spencer, new to Walnut Creek as the manager of Sherman and Clay, commented, "one of the big problems of the music teacher and the music business, as regards the music student, is to gain the understanding and encouragement of the parent. That's the appealing idea behind Youth Concerts, at least to me.

"IT AN OPPORTUNITY for the whole family to be exposed to good music together. The shortened length of the concerts, their price and format make this idea especially attractive."

One of the family groups which has enjoyed Youth Concerts the last two years is that of Dr. and Mrs. Norman Betaque. "I am not a musician, but speaking as a layman, my wife, our four children and I look forward to the concerts and especially enjoy our opportunity to attend as a family," said Mr. Betaque.

Mrs. Thomas H. Hazlett is president of the Mt. Diablo Council of the Parent Teachers Association. She and her family have been enthusiastic in their support of Youth Concerts the past two years.

Volunteers Are Helping Seal Campaign

By MRS. E. C. STERLING

"It makes me feel good—it's a nice feeling to know you're helping in the work of the world." So says a volunteer who has addressed over 800 envelopes in her home for the Easter Seal Society.

This volunteer has three children and an invalid brother. She says she finds time for these outside interests an extra bonus because she tends to finish her housework quicker.

The Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County is now recruiting for help with the Easter Seal Drive, which closes January 31. Help is needed in addressing envelopes, either by hand or typewritten. So far the Volunteer Bureau has recruited one adult organization, one teen-age group and numerous individuals who like to do spot jobs.

Many more individuals or groups are needed.

Another agency needs volunteers to place telephone calls throughout the central county area. This volunteer job may be done from the home. The Heart Association needs volunteers for kit stuffing—all these and many other volunteer jobs may be done in the home.

The Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County new office is at 2030 North Main Street, Walnut Creek. The community needs you!

The Ford Motor Company has announced the discovery of a chemical for purifying automobile exhausts—one of the main causes of smog. The chemical is vanadium pentoxide which, the anti-smog researchers say, eliminates more than 80 per cent of unconsumed hydro-carbons in a car's exhaust gases.

Hunter Safety Program Is Second in US

California ranks second to New York in the number of students trained under its Hunter Safety Program, the National Rifle Association informed the Department of Fish and Game today.

Since the program began in California in 1954, a total of 72,097 students have received certificates of competence in hunter safety. New York has trained 139,168, but began its program three years earlier (in 1951).

New York trains all persons under the age of 21 whereas California law requires training be given to those under 16 who have not previously had a hunting license.

The Department said 16,444 students were trained in California through November.

California leads all states in the number of instructors certifeid to train students, with 3484. New York's 2249 is second.

The following figures show numbers of instructors certified and students trained in states having either a regular hunter safety program or a voluntary program. The date following the state is the year in which the program became effective. The letter V indicates a voluntary program not established as a requirement to obtaining a hunting license.

State	Instructors Certified	Students Trained
New York (1951)	2,249	139,168
California (1954)	3,484	72,097
New Jersey (1955)	534	20,164
S. Dakota (1956)	1,059	11,975
Pennsylvania V	594	6,251
Minnesota (1954)	1,043	1,839
New Hamp. (1953) V	96	660
Arizona (1954) V	347	579

Arizona, New Jersey and South Dakota are following the pattern established in California. (The Arizona program is a voluntary activity of the public schools.) All three states are using material developed in the California program.

Don's Home Opener Ends in Double Victory for Pitt

The Acalanes Dons made their league home debut Tuesday afternoon and it was far from successful as they went down to bitter defeat in both games dropping the Bee tilt 38-30 and being outscored in the varsity go 47-29.

In the Bee game, Pitt, hitting a hot 41 percent, led 15-6 at the half and was never in trouble as it rolled to the win slot although the Don Babes did keep pace in the second half.

Steve Lamphere, Acalanes forward, was high with 11 for Acalanes while a nifty guard, Pete DiMecurio, took game honors with 12.

In the varsity game Pitt came up with one of its better games while the Dons folded like the proverbial tent.

Pitt threw a tight zone defense and mixed it with a full court play that caught the Dons short.

The Dons were in the ball game the first quarter trailing 9-7 but the Pirates took a comfortable lead when center John Phair's field goal was the Don's only point of the second quarter, while Pitt hit an odd five field goals for an even 10 points.

The Dons were outscored in the third quarter 16-8 and when Pirate reserves took over in the final quarter Acalanes edged the visitors 12-10.

Don center John Phair did capture top individual scoring honors with 16 on three field goals and 10 free throws followed by Pitt's forward John Nord with 11 on five field goals and one free throw.

Crescent Team Practices; It Has Mexico Polo Crown

The Crescent Jewelers polo team of Oakland is now engaged in practice sessions at Santa Barbara each weekend, with good practice games played each Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Should anyone from the Bay Area like to see these games while on a trip, they will be welcome to do so by mentioning they are guests of the Crecsent team, according to Vic Graber of Orinda, captain of the team.

As a result of the Crescent Jewelers team's winning the polo championship of Mexico at Mexico City on December 15, the Mexican Polo Association is seriously considering a trip to California in April, in an endeavor to win the Pacific Coast Open Championship.

The Mexicans would bring a team made up of two Gracidas brothers, Julio Muller, Irwin Aniz and Jaime Rincon-Gallardo as alternate.

THE MEXICANS are rough, tough riders, and would transport their own horses. The team has the support of the armed forces, which means the horses would be trained and conditioned by Mexico's finest horsemen.

The Polo team of Mexico's excursion to California would be the first since 1937, when a great Mexican team beat the United States in best two out of three matches.

The Crescent Jewelers team which beat Mexico in December was made up of Vic Graber, captain; Dr. Bill Linfoot, 10-goal Bob Skene and Morris Morrison.

The Crescent Jewelers team is no cinch to win the try out play offs, as many great teams of four will be out to represent the West in this challenge series, Graber points out.

THE CRESCENT TEAM will be aided by the acquisition of six horses purchased by 10-goaler Bob Skene from his brother Ken, in Australia. Ken is Australia's finest player.

Graber reports that the Crescent team is considering an invitation to play in England and France this summer.

"They would have an opportunity of going against the 'Household Guards', which Prince Phillip of Great Britain captains. The prince's team won the 'Europe Gold Cup' at Deauville, France, this trophy is symbolic of the European championship," Graber says.

The Crescent Jewelers team holds the Pacific Coast and National 20-Goal championship for 1957. Crescent also won national championships in 1949 and 1955.

A lightweight gas turbine engine weighing only 326 pounds but delivering 286 hp, is under development by the U.S. Army. The little engine is only 44 inches long and 29 inches high. It will be used to generate electrical power in an engine-generator "power package" delivering 100,000 watts at 400 volts.

Decor Course Is Still Open

Home furnishing and decorating, a short 10-week course offered on Tuesday nights at East Contra Costa Junior College, has room for a few additional students, it was announced today.

Taught by Mrs. Evelyn Krueger Bell, former professional lecturer on home decorating for women's clubs, the course covers practical material which can be applied by the individual to her own decorating problems.

Sessions will be devoted among other topics, to trends in home living, color and design in furnishing, selection and arrangement of furniture and floor plans.

They are designed to have value for the present home owner or for those thinking about selecting a home.

There is no tuition. Registration will be taken Monday through Thursday nights, Student Activities Building, 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Local Doctor Says Smog Is Harmful

Dr. Seymour M. Farber told members of the Advisory Council of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District that smog has a definitely harmful effect on patients suffering from respiratory diseases, as shown by experiments at the San Francisco Hospital.

Dr. Farber, a member of the advisory council, disclosed that tests on approximately 40 patients with various respiratory ailments demonstrated that smog counteracted the benefits of medication, as well as hampering proper breathing.

However, the doctor cautioned that "every statement regarding air pollution and health must await careful study and evaluation." In five years there will probably be some definite answers concerning the relationship of smog and health, but until then it "is essential that we avoid rash statements" and "fear talk" when air pollution and lung diseases are spoken of together.

A lung-physiology apparatus for "determining and measuring abnormal lung functions" was exhibited by Dr. Roger H. L. Wilson, who started respiratory experiments with Dr. Farber last April to determine the effect of humidity and air pollution on breathing.

The chairman of the district's advisory council, Dr. Elwyn Turner, appointed six standing committees, made up of council members, to study some various problems of air contamination. The newly-formed committees are: agriculture and horticulture, processing and manufacturing, incineration and combusion, new methods and processes, metreology, and automotive and transportation.

On request of the Bay Area Pollution Control District board of directors, the effects of diesel and auto exhausts on downtown area-wide area pollution will be studied by the six-man automotive and transportation group.

The next meeting of the Bay Area Pollution Control district advisory council was set for March 12 at 1480 Mission Street, San Francisco.

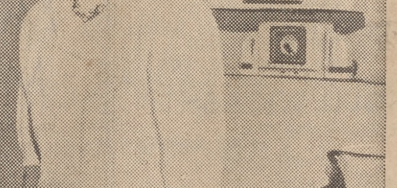
He spends 6 minutes here...to save his wife hours at home

Captain Lloyd Jensen, Santa Fe Railway tugboat skipper, finds his pay for just 6 minutes will run a houseful of appliances for 24 hours.

In about the time it takes to back his tug away from a pier, Captain Jensen has earned enough to heat and light his Oakland home for 24 hours. This 6 minutes' pay also provides the gas and electricity that operate Mrs. Jensen's 30 labor-saving appliances (like the food mixer she's using).

By any comparison, gas and electricity are unusual bargains. Your P. G. and E. bill may be higher today than in past years, but that's because you use more gas and electricity—for better living. The average cost of a unit of gas and electricity is one-third lower today than in 1936.



Live better—gas and electricity are cheap in California

MORE POWER!

The more well lighted a store or office is, the more people it attracts. More people mean more income, and that is why the use of electricity has more than doubled in stores and offices in the past 10 years.

Surveys show the average sales increase with new lighting ranges from 19% with automobile dealers to 40% with hardware stores, with the middle bracket showing gains of 21% for apparel shops, 24% for drug stores, 20% for food stores, 24% for gas stations, 27% for furniture and appliance stores, 22% for general merchandise, and 37% for jewelry stores.

Better lighting stops twice as many passersby, pulls one-third more of them into the store, steps up impulse buying, cuts down errors, returns, and accidents. It also results in a better sales and office force because it cuts out that tired feeling of eye fatigue.

Well-planned lighting in a professional office makes patients and clients relax while they wait in an atmosphere of competence and efficiency, and reduces mistakes in typing and other office machine work.
